Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman

PREFACE

Press Information Department (PID) as a part of its year long program marking Mujib Borsho, the Birth Centenary of Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, has brought out a special publication of PID Telephone Guide. The inclusion of a rare set of photographs of the Father of the Nation and also the government's mega projects along with regular sections in the telephone guide has branded it as an important souvenir.

It's our pleasure to notice a huge demand of the PID Telephone Guide among the stakeholders. As the 20th edition of the guide exhausted within a limited time, we have to publish the 21st edition marking Mujib Boshho in a very short notice.

Despite time constraints amid pandemic situation, cooperation extended by the media houses, ministries, departments and other organizations in updating the input of the guide is highly commendable.

The unique feature of the PID Telephone Guide is that it is designed for the media people. The present democratic government under the prudent leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina firmly values the freedom of the press as the fourth estate after executive, legislature and judiciary in running the state-craft.

And, therefore, the media industry in the country is flourishing day by day. Currently, there are more than 1300 dailies, 1900 periodicals, 45 TV channels, hundreds of radio stations and online news media operating across the country in meeting citizens' demand for information.

A dedicated PID team exerted a concerted effort to publish the useful media telephone guide for professional use. Our media-colleagues through their invaluable suggestions have also contributed to enrich the publication.

We had always been sincere in bringing out a telephone guide containing updated information for the convenience of our worthy stakeholders. We express our regret for not being able to cover many important phone numbers. We humbly regret for the short-coming.

Our efforts, however, would continue to make a complete online guide constantly updating the changes so that anyone visiting our website can pick up the latest contacts. Valuable suggestions or opinions from any quarter in improving the PID TELEPHONE GUIDE 2021 would cordially be accepted.
